

Nanchang University School of Law Program Overview

Bachelor of Laws

I. Educational Objectives

Bachelor of Laws has been selected as one of the first batch of National First-Class Undergraduate Majors. Guided by scientific methods, the program aims to cultivate high-quality, versatile legal professionals who meet the demands of the times. Graduates are expected to have sound character, both moral integrity and legal competence, strong overall qualities, solid professional knowledge, strong adaptability, an innovative spirit, and entrepreneurial ability.

II. Main Courses

Jurisprudence, Chinese Legal History, Constitutional Law, Criminal Law, Civil Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Civil Procedure Law, Economic Law, Administrative Law and Administrative Litigation Law, Commercial Law, Property Law, Contract Law, Intellectual Property Law, International Law, Private International Law, and other courses.

III. Graduation Requirements

Students are expected to possess a high level of civic morality and professional ethics, broad cultural literacy, and sound psychological qualities. They should master systematic knowledge of the discipline of law and language expression skills, and possess the basic ability to engage in theoretical legal research. Students must complete all requirements prescribed in the training program.

IV. Career Prospects

1. Engaging in legal research and other forms of social research;
2. Undertaking professional practical work in relevant departments of Party and government organs at all levels, as well as in public security organs, procuratorates, and courts;
3. Working as legal counsel or in related positions in economic, financial, industrial and commercial, taxation, enterprise, and other organizations;
4. Engaging in legal teaching at universities, colleges, and vocational institutions.

Bachelor of Intellectual Property

I. Educational Objectives

Bachelor of Intellectual Property was approved as a provincial first-class undergraduate program construction program. The program aims to cultivate high-quality legal professionals who possess both moral integrity and legal competence, as well as distinctive professional expertise. While mastering professional legal knowledge, students also gain proficiency in intellectual property law and intellectual property management. They develop strong legal practice abilities and are prepared to undertake work related to intellectual property law.

II. Main Courses

Copyright Law, Patent Law, Trademark Law, Competition Law, Intellectual Property Management, International Protection of Intellectual Property, Chinese Legal History, Constitutional Law, Criminal Law, Civil Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Civil Procedure Law, International Law, and other courses.

III. Graduation Requirements

Students are expected to have strong humanistic literacy, sound character, and good professional spirit. They should possess solid theoretical knowledge of law, master practical intellectual property skills, and have the ability to comprehensively analyze and judge practical intellectual property issues. Students must complete all requirements prescribed in the training program.

IV. Career Prospects

1. Engaging in teaching and research related to intellectual property law at universities and research institutes;
2. Undertaking legislative, judicial, and administrative law enforcement work related to intellectual property law in relevant departments of Party and government organs at all levels, as well as in public security organs, procuratorates, and courts;
3. Providing legal services related to intellectual property law in enterprises and public institutions, patent agencies, law firms, and other organizations.